Christians Arrested for Preaching in New Orleans After Sunset. Police Vow to Target Churches Next

by Heather Clark, Used by permission from Christian News Network.

A pastor and five members of his ministry team were arrested Friday September 14th in New Orleans, Louisiana for preaching on Bourbon Street after sunset.

Pastor Troy Bohn of RAVEN Ministries (Restoring a Vision and Evangelizing Nations) and his ministry associates were taken into custody as they were sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ after 10:00 p.m. with the many men and women who had gathered on the infamous street.

Pastor Troy Bohn prays with a man that he had been sharing the Bourbon Street is located in the French Quarter, and is known for its preponderance of bars and strip clubs. It is the center of night life in the city and also a tourist attraction during events like Mardi Gras and the Southern Decadence Festival, which are known for featuring lewd acts in the streets. Bohn who has been preaching in the city since 1996 called the area his "mission field". He said that he engages in evangelistic activity in New Orleans at least three times a week.

"Jesus saw the multitudes and was moved with compassion for them. ... [Similarly], he's given us a love for the city and the people here," Bohn stated. "Would I be willing to go through somebody tossing beer in my face or cursing me out to reach somebody? Yes."

He outlined that night was typical of most nights as the group began sharing Christ with the crowds.

"We had our cross set up, and one young man that works with us [named Logan] was sharing the Gospel," he explained to Christian News Network. "Some of the girls were talking to others."

Bohn said that as the preaching went forth, a sergeant with the New Orleans Police Department approached, and so Bohn asked him what was the matter.

"[He said,] there's an ordinance against aggressive solicitation and you are under arrest," he recounted. "They began to handcuff Logan and they said, 'We're going to cuff you guys so you can't take off.'"

The Christians' Inheritance

by Angeline Williams

I was listening to the song "You Ain't Seen Nothing Yet" by Dorothy Norwood and was reminded of a dream I had a few years ago that I never fully understood. I asked the Lord about that dream again and shortly thereafter my pastor preached a message entitled "What is the Inheritance". I want to share with you what the Lord shared with me concerning the dream and our inheritance. Because there is so much to share this will be a 2 part series so be sure to look for the next issue.

In the dream I was walking with Jesus in Heaven. the glow around Him was bright I never saw His face plainly so I can't describe to you what He looks like, but I knew it was Him. The excitement, joy and peace I could feel in atmosphere is indescribable. Everything I saw was absolutely amazing! He and I were walking down a long corridor with rooms on each side and talking. Each room was filled to the ceiling with beautifully wrapped gifts. There were large and small boxes of every size. I could see angels go in, get some, and take them away.

We entered one of the rooms which seemed much larger than the others. As I looked around I was amazed at the size of the room and how many gifts there were. I asked "Lord what are these?"

"These are gifts and blessings for my sheep, everything they need and could ever desire," He said.

I walked over and looked at the gifts and realized they had name tags on them. I saw names of people I knew. I even saw my name on some. I was so excited and went to grab them up to take them with me. He shouted, "Stop!"

I said, "But Lord, these are mine and I know some of these people. I can take our gifts with me." He said, "No Angeline you cannot, everyone must come and get their own. Just share what you saw and those who have an ear to hear will hear and come. All they need to do is believe. All things are possible to him who believes".

I said okay and we walked out, but my heart was so heavy. There was so much I didn't understand. I remember praying for all of us that we would hear and believe. I woke up and continued praying but the dream didn't fully open up for me until years later when my pastor preached the message entitled "What is the Inheritance".

I pray that you have an ear to hear. I pray that God gives you wisdom to clearly see and really understand who Christ is and all that He has done for us and how incredibly great His power is to help those who believe Him.

What are the gifts and blessings and how do we receive them? Well let me first point out that if you have not put faith in Jesus as your Lord and Saviour, then the first step is to do just that. "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved" (Romans 10:9).

The first thing I learned is that one of the problems, or the basis of the problem as to why so

Bohn said that as the incident unfolded, he heard the sergeant give the order, "Be sure to find out what church they are with because we are going to start going after these churches."

"It kind of chilled me," he stated. "Are we the threat preaching Jesus? No, I kind of like to think that we are holding back the darkness."

Bohn explained that one of the women that was arrested, named Kelsey, was saved during their outreach at Voodoo Fest last October, and now goes out with the group to share Christ with others.

"A young lady had come by [one night] who was working at one of the strip clubs," he recounted. "Something spoke to her that said, 'Get out of there,' and then she saw the cross and gave her heart to Jesus that night. She's a totally changed person."

"There's a lot of Kelsey's out there that are just looking for somebody in a dark place," Bohn added. "So many of the girls are hooked on drugs, abusive situations and backyard prostitution."

After the ministry team was placed under arrest, they were all marched down to the precinct house where they were held for one hour. Bohn and two others were charged with violating the ordinance; the others, including both women, were not processed.

As he was being held, Bohn confronted the sergeant about his comments, who stated that he was just following orders, although he did not agree with them. Bohn said that he asked the officer what he would do if the mere mention of Christ on the streets became illegal.

"I'm a Christian and I used to be a youth minister," he remembered the sergeant responding. "And one day, I will have to cross that line."

The sergeant then asked Bohn if the group planned on returning to Bourbon Street the following night. Bohn indicated that they were — ordinance or not.

"Well, I may be out there with you because I'm off tomorrow," Bohn said that the sergeant replied.

The group was released at approximately 2 a.m.

Last October, the City of New Orleans ratified the "Aggressive Solicitation" ordinance in an effort to not only curb the forceful solicitation of donations in the popular section of the French Quarter, but to also place limitations on political and religious speech. Former mayoral candidate Leo Watermeier recently advised that he has complained to officials that police are not enforcing the ordinance with consistency, noting that Christians are still gathering on the street after dark to speak out against homosexual practices. He believes that the law was crafted in part due to the significant number of religious "protesters" that are known to be on the street in the evening.

The section of the ordinance that Bohn and his team are being charged with violating states, "It shall be prohibited for any person or group of persons to loiter or congregate on Bourbon Street for the purpose of disseminating any social, political or religious message between the hours of sunset and sunrise."

Evangelist Tony Miano, a 20-year law enforcement veteran who was once named "Deputy of the Year" by the City of Santa Clarita, California, says that the ordinance is problematic.

"I agree that this law is ridiculous," he told Christian News Network. "I suspect that once rightly challenged, it will be overturned.

Miano said that he believes the city is attempting to justify its actions by restricting free speech of any kind on Bourbon Street after dark.

"They think the language is such that as long as [they] silence everybody, then its okay to silence anybody," he explained.

Miano stated that if he were currently serving as an officer and were faced with enforcing such a law, he would approach his superiors and attempt to find an alternate way to handle the matter.

Peter Fox, former 17-year Virginia deputy sheriff and patrol officer, who now serves as pastor of Safe Harbor Church and Community Center in Akutan, Alaska, agreed.

"We've all taken an oath to uphold the Constitution," he said. "When you have someone who's using freedom of speech, it's our duty as law enforcement to let that speech take place."

Last month, a group of nine men not affiliated with Bohn's ministry were also arrested for engaging in free speech on Bourbon Street after sundown. They had been speaking during the Southern Decadence Festival, a homosexual event that is marked by public drunkenness and open sex acts.

"I know it won't end on Bourbon Street," Bohn stated. "It'll go to your street. It'll go to my street."

The penalties for violations of the "Aggressive Solicitation" ordinance include a $500 fine and a maximum of six months imprisonment.

Police were not available for comment at press time.

God Healed My Marriage... He Can Heal Yours Too

by Audrey E. Charles

One must agree that relationships are under attack in the church. The great ploy of the enemy is to divide, while the Lord Jesus came to reconcile and unite us with each other and with God – Luke 9:56. In His final prayer before leaving the earth, Jesus prayed in John 17:21 concerning His disciples that we may all be one just as the Father and Jesus are one. I see that particular Word being attacked daily in the church and by extension even outside of the church. The Word of God has advised that offenses must come. See Matthew 18:7. However, we are mandated to walk in love. See John 13:34.

Marriage is a great institution created by the Lord. It is the greatest union that a man and a woman could enter into. It is not just a physical joining but a spiritual one. This joining is the seed or nucleus of family life that God instituted when He was creating the world. He saw that it was not good that man should be alone so he gave the man a wife. This was sacred. He showed the importance of this union by taking a rib from the man in order to form woman and then He breathed HIS breath into them and blessed them saying unto them that they should reproduce after their own kind. In other words, that was the license given to populate the earth – to bring forth duplicates of God's creation.

However, I see time and time again a disjoining in marriages with many divorces occurring as well as tragic endings to marriages. Some claim irreconcilable differences to be the reason for separation. However, the majority of marriages end because of infidelity. The latter being the only excuse that God would accept in permitting a divorce. See Matthew 19:9.

My own life attests to the extreme attacks from the enemy even from the inception of my marriage. For seventeen years I was miserable beyond words. Communication problems together with gross infidelity on both sides occurred. Arguments and just downright friction and unhappiness prevailed. In the midst of the negativity and unpleasantness the Words that caused me to remain married were "What God has joined together, let no man put asunder."

Whenever I reached to the point of utter frustration, those Words came to me as a reminder. After seventeen years of wedded un-bliss, life began to change, only because I saw God lifting me to another level in Him. He caused me to view this union with different eyes – in other words, the Lord showed me my marriage from HIS perspective.

Do you know that Adam never had a choice in having Eve for his wife and Eve never had a choice in choosing her own mate. Adam did not have the freedom to say that he's looking for a 34-26-38 figured woman with blonde hair and blue eyes. Nor did Eve have the freedom to choose specifics for a husband.

Do you know that God chose the two to be united? In this world system, we have a false sense of what marriage really is and how we are to determine who is to be your spouse. We use all sorts of criteria that are irrelevant to God when choosing a mate. The mandate to man from his Creator, was to leave his mother's house and go find a wife. See Matthew 19:5.

I have realized that we must first love the Lord our God with all of our hearts, and subsequently we should allow ourselves to be led by the Spirit of God – see Romans 8:14. It stands to reason that we ought to be led by the Spirit of God in choosing our spouses.

We are born with purpose by God. Therefore, the person who God will give us to wed will be the person who will help us to fulfill our purpose and destiny in God. Have you thought of what will happen if we go about choosing a mate ourselves instead of waiting on the leadership of the Holy Ghost? Our destiny would be at stake?

I lived for years looking to satisfy my fleshly desires in marriage, but God has shown me that His purpose for bringing me into this world has nothing to do with my unruly flesh. I was created to complete the husband that God has given to me and my husband is to complete me, and together we are to fulfill our purpose on the earth, as God has already ordained in eternity.

We all have to grow up and out of operating in our flesh and learn to walk according to the Spirit of God's direction. Walking to fulfill flesh will cause us to lose our souls in hell. See Romans 8:5-8 and Galatians 5:16-17.

Marriage is something that we work at. It entails a lot of dying to the flesh – in other words, the marriage must include the activation of agape-the God kind of love, in order to live this life victoriously for God. Couples would never agree on all issues because they are individuals, with different likes and dislikes who have come together to form one unit. However, God still expects the couple to live victoriously as husband and wife. The keys to living the victorious life in marriage are as follows –

Let the Word of God take first place in your life. Choose to obey and do the Word of God simply because it pleases the Father! Read Eph. 2: 1-7 & 5:21-23

Approach your marriage not for what YOU can GET from your spouse but rather what YOU can OFFER to your spouse. Love is not selfish! Read 1 Corinthians 13.

When there is a problem within the relationship...and there will be problems take the matter to God and ask for Him to make things right. Read Psalm 37:4-5.

many Christians do not live the abundant life Christ talks about in John 10:10 is the way we see things. Once you put your faith in Jesus as your Lord, He initiates you into Sonship, births you into His kingdom, adopts you as His own son and makes you His heir. (Romans 8:17). From the moment a Believer puts their faith in Christ we receive all of the blessings in Christ including our inheritance. However, you can have an inheritance without ever knowing about it or drawing upon it. This doesn't mean they are not saved, it just means they are not experiencing the full benefits of salvation.

One thing I knew about all of us whose names were on the gift tags was that we were all Christians doing what we thought Christians should do. We all prayed and fasted, we all served in our local church, we all diligently tried to live according to the Word of God yet we had never come to receive our blessings. Many Christians wonder why they see so little change in their life after rebirth even after doing all that they know to do. I too wondered why after several years of diligently serving and crying out to God with prayer and fasting that I was not seeing the victory in my life that I read about in the Bible. My finances were a mess even though I consistently tithed and gave offerings. I tried my best to love others and treat them good. I study the word daily or at least several times a week. I was in church every time the doors opened. I preached and taught Sunday School. I broke generational curses, I was constantly rebuking the devil and did much warfare in the Spirit yet even as I did all those there was no real victory. At the top of my list during pray was a real transformation. I desperately wanted to be like Christ. In fact this dream came during one of those times of fasting and prayer. This went on for years. I was just like the Israelites wandering around in the wilderness.

Then one Sunday God used my pastor to preach a message "What is the Inheritance" and the light bulb came on. Well actually every message my pastor preaches sheds light and truth on what I thought I knew regarding scripture and living the life of Christ. You can actually listen to the message online at totalvictoryexperience.com. Anyway that day I realized that the transformation I had been seeking required Light. You see you will never receive the Blessings of God based on your works. Abraham tried this and ended up with Ishmael. (Genesis 22:18). The problem wasn't that I wasn't doing enough or lacked something of Christ. The problem was I didn't know the reality of my new life, what belonged to me or really who I was. I was born of the Spirit, but walked after the flesh. I received Christ, but still saw myself in Adam and walked in Adam. Remember Adam was still in the Garden but he attempted to hide himself from God.

Jesus says "if the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness". When Jesus said this He was describing the entire race of man that sees and walks and judges by a darkness that we call light. In our eyes we are walking in the light because we have become so accustomed to the darkness that we actually believe that we can see because we are busy working for the Lord per say and call it light. Sadly many people prefer it that way.

Darkness may be one of the most misunderstood and unrealized realities in the Body of Christ. Darkness can continue to work in our lives even after we are born again. We can learn so many things without ever seeing in the Light. We can read all the best selling self-help Christian books we want but if the writer is not seeing in the Light of Christ but in the darkness of the lie it profits us nothing. It may profit them a few dollars but in the end they too have profited nothing. Moving and stumbling around in darkness is exhausting. At least for me it was. Working in my own strength trying to find Life in things, substances and others only to come up empty was futile and wore me out.

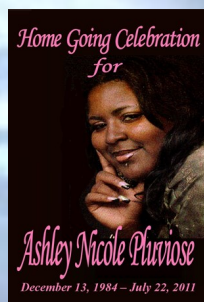

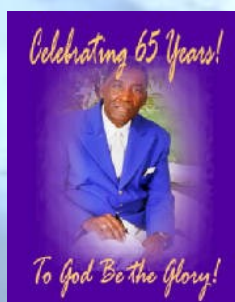

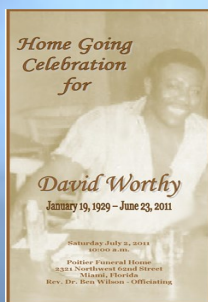

Prior to understanding God's eternal purpose for the Cross, I had no idea what it meant to be raised with Christ, seated with Him in the heavens, joined to Christ, in His Father. I had some head knowledge of Christ but really didn't understand what He'd done at the Cross. I believed and loved the word and thought I knew the word and would gravitate towards verses that seemed to be telling me how to live the Christian life, how God had blessed me but my understanding was based my reality. I didn't do it on purpose, but I unconsciously brushed over the Scriptures that said things like "apart from me you can do nothing", "the flesh profits nothing", in the flesh dwells no good thing", "in the flesh it is impossible to please God", "you have been buried with Him", "in Adam all die", to get to the good stuff and when I did read them because I was reading through the lens of the lie my understanding was that God is somewhere outside of me instructing me through scripture and life lessons. I still pray, serve and study and so should you. But the idea that God is somewhere outside of us instructing us through how to live is wrong. We can only know God in ONE way, IN Spirit, IN Truth, IN Christ.

I was familiar with the concept of Christ living in me but CHRIST AS MY LIFE didn't comprehend, even though I read it several times in John chapter 4 I didn't know what it meant so I would just brushed over it trying to get to what I thought was the good stuff. I realize now that this is the good stuff, the foundation to spiritual growth once we are reborn. Everything I thought I knew regarding the new birth was wrong because I was seeing things from my own perspective, the pastor's perspective, and other saint's perspective. I never saw Christ as my life. Like Paul I count everything up to that point as dung.

Learning Christ is not where things about Him are shown to you from the outside, but when He reveals Himself to you from the inside. Having life has nothing to do with being born into the earth or when God gives you some, but when God Himself lives in you. When we come into this new life we don't know anything about what we have inherited. You won't find Truth by trying to read the word and then applying it to your life. That is like putting on a coat of paint. It will cover up some things but it will never change you. And most importantly you can't apply truth to your life because you don't have a life left to apply it to because CHRIST IS YOUR LIFE. Christ said to come to Him and learn of Him. If you want to know God, learn Christ and learn how to live in Christ start by recognizing that you are dead and alive in Christ. You are in Him, made alive together, raised together, seated together in heaven.

There is no need to try to figure out how to be righteous because you can't separate righteousness from Christ. You are righteous because you are in the one who IS righteousness. He is not going to give you a reward because He IS the reward. He's not going to give you a crown of life because He IS the crown of life. You already have these things. There is no need to wait until you get to heaven to get your inheritance because you received it on the day you placed your faith in Christ. You must reckon yourself as dead and Christ as your life (see Romans 6:11). This is part of what the Lord was showing me in the dream.

Jesus said in Mathew 11:28-30, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me." Several times in John 14 through 16 He said that the Spirit of Truth was coming to reveal unto us the things of Him and to guide us into all truth and teach us all things. We all know about Christ in our minds, so this is not the issue it is an issue of the soul learning Christ.

I pray that a seed has been planted that will cause you to want to learn more. Having a good church home where the pastor preaches Jesus Christ will help. What you don't want is a church home where they teach you how to be a better you. That is futile because you are dead and alive in Christ. There is no longer a you to make better. The only thing you can do with a dead man is bury him. Ask the Lord to lead you to a place where you can learn of Him.

Be sure to get next month's issue where we will continue to talk about our new life in Christ.

Not Sure of Salvation? Where Are You Looking?

One of the reasons believers struggle with assurance of salvation is that they are looking in the wrong place. A common error is that we take our eyes off our Saviour and we begin looking at our own faith or we look at our own life. As we gaze upon SELF we get discouraged very quickly because we are so imperfect.

As we look at our own faith, we get discouraged. Our faith seems to be shaky. The more we look at our faith the more we begin to wonder and question: "Do I really believe as I should? Is my faith really good enough? Am I really a true believer? This is what usually happens as we get our eyes off the Lord and onto our own weak and frail faith.

Another similar problem is when we look upon our own Christian life. We contemplate the way we've have been living, thinking, failures, and failings. We wonder, "How can I be saved if I live this way? I fall so far short of what God wants me to be." But God never told us to look at our own good works or lack of good works. No, God tells us to be "looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith" (Hebrews 12:1-2).

What a difference it makes when we fix our eyes on the Saviour. The more we look, the more we discover how wonderful our Saviour is and what a perfect salvation He has obtained for us.

"Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God" (Rom. 10:17) because it is in the Word that we see our Saviour and learn of His sufficiency!

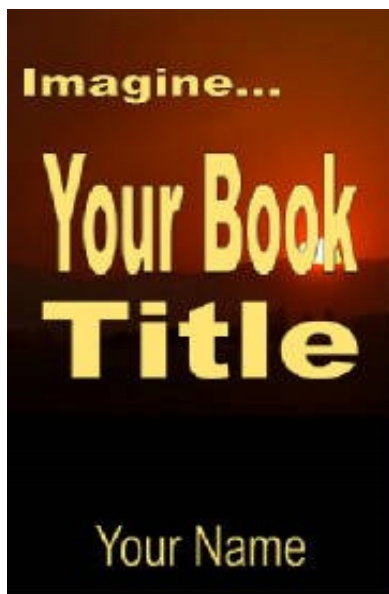

Our faith is not wonderful, but our Saviour is wonderful and He is the One we are to trust. We are not to trust in our faith. We are not to trust in our good works, but His on the Cross. The more we get our eyes on the Lord--who He is, what He has done, what He has said--the more we will have that blessed assurance.

Faith is not complicated it is simply looking to Christ (Isaiah 45:22; John 3:14-16). Faith is seeing Christ as God pictures Him in the Word. The question is not, how good is my faith or how good is my walk?" But rather the questions is, "How good is my Saviour?" Neither is the question "Am I believing?" but rather, "IN WHOM am I believing and in what direction am I looking?" Instead of desperately searching our deceitful hearts trying to find faith, we need to joyfully search God's Word looking to find Christ.

We continue the Christian life the same way we started: "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord (by looking unto Him in simple childlike trust), so walk ye in him" (Col. 2:6). Let's get our eyes on the lovely Saviour and move forward with our full confidence in Him!

Look Where the Soul Goes During Sex

by Dan Delzell. Used by permission.

Sex is more than just a physical act. There is also a deep spiritual aspect to sex. But you probably knew that already, didn't you? Or at least you may have had an inkling of it in your soul.

Whenever two bodies engage in sex, their souls are also united. Why would that be? Well simply put, God made sex. You and I didn't create it. If you were only a body and not also a soul, then sex would only be physical. Memo to you: "Your soul is immortal and will never cease to exist, no matter what you do with your body." So we don't get to dictate to God where the boundaries for sex are to be set. That's His call, and His alone.

You have probably heard the saying, "He who has the gold makes the rules." That may often be the way it plays out on earth, but I have another one for you. "He who created man's body and soul gets to establish the sexual boundaries of right and wrong." I am talking about a universal code of conduct that is not based on your strongest sexual desires, but rather, upon God's authoritative Word.

What makes one sexual relationship right and the other wrong has nothing to do with personal preferences. It has everything to do with how the Creator defines it and where He set the bar when He made sex. When man in essence attempts to lower God's bar and ignore God's commands, his soul suffers more than his body. That is a fact, not because I say it or you say it but because God has clearly addressed the issue of sexual conduct in the Scriptures.

When two people engage in sex, their physical bodies are obviously in one specific geographic location but their soul goes to a or spiritual location which is invisible to the human eye.

So where is that invisible place that souls go during sex? Actually, there are three places souls can go. While their bodies are united in a visible geographic location, their souls are united in an invisible place....but a place that is, nevertheless, just as real.

The first place two souls goes to also happens to be the one place God designed for souls to go during sex. The Bible calls this place "the marriage bed." This is the place where a man and woman who are married go when they have sex. Whether they are in their actual bedroom or not "the marriage bed" is the place where their souls connect with one another during sex. It is a spiritual union and it is one of the many blessings of marriage.

God's Word says, "Marriage should be honored by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral." (Hebrews 13:4) This is the only way your soul can enjoy "safe sex." It is the only place God has sanctioned and chosen to bless. The other two places where many souls connect during sex will bring a curse and not a blessing.

The second place, or spiritual location, where many souls engage in sex is in "church." That's right...the temple of the Lord. I am not talking about a church building. The New Testament never uses the word "church" to describe a building. For the past 2000 years, the "church" has been the physical bodies and souls of Christians. "Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you?" (1 Cor. 3:16) you to lock into your mind. Picture yourself having sex right up in the front of your church sanctuary....right where the pastor delivers God's Word to the people. Hold that image in your mind....because in God's eyes, when a born again person has sex outside of marriage...the two souls are united in "church" right there in God's presence.

Every believer in Jesus Christ is "in church" 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. You never leave church. Your body never stops being a temple of the Holy Spirit. Everything you do as a believer is being done "in church." Would you as a Christian ever engage in sexual immorality in your church building? I am guessing you would never be that brazen. Well... when a believer engages in this behavior anywhere, his body is in one location and his soul is "in church" right in front of God.

The Bible says, "Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your body." (1 Cor. 6:18-20) There is nothing honorable about committing sexual sin in church.

We've now seen two of the three spiritual places people can have sex....the marriage bed, and the church. It's time to consider the third and only other place where two souls can meet when engaging in sex.

Jesus made it clear that there are only two roads leading into eternity....a narrow road to heaven....and a wide road to hell. (see Matthew 7:13,14) Hell is described by our Lord as a place where "the fire never goes out." (Mark 9:48) Perhaps it is just like fire on earth....or perhaps it is far worse. Either way, imagine a person who does not know Jesus and is therefore on the road to hell. Picture that person living everyday on the rim of a volcano, walking around it, hanging out only a breath away from entering it forever.

Now imagine that unbeliever having a bed sitting right on the rim of the volcano. Whenever that unbeliever has sex, he or she is as close to falling into the volcano as you can get. This is the third place that two souls can meet to have sex. When two people who do not know Christ engage in sex, this is their "bed" and it is dangling on the rim of the volcano. If they only knew that their sexual act could be their final act before dying and entering hell for eternity.

"Can a man scoop fire into his lap without his clothes being burned? Can a man walk on hot coals without his feet being scorched? So is he who sleeps with another man's wife; no one who touches her will go unpunished." (Proverbs 6:27-29)

By the way, even married couples who are unbelievers are on the rim of the volcano during sex. You may say, "But they are married. I thought that is what God wanted. They are not sinning by having sex in marriage, right?" Well...in their case, there is a bigger sin being committed. It trumps their sexual relationship in marriage. It is the sin of unbelief. It is the one sin that keeps a person's soul living on the rim of a volcano, so to speak. Without Christ in your life, even sex in marriage cannot save your soul or the soul of your spouse. Jesus is the only One who can rescue us from our sin and bring us to heaven.

So there are the three places that souls can have sex. The first one is good, holy, and God-pleasing...it is the marriage bed....and it is God's plan. The second one is scandalous....where a believer engages in sex outside of marriage, and therefore, is committing sexual sin in God's church. And thirdly, many souls engage in sex on the rim of a volcano due to their unbelief in Christ as their Savior.

There is no fourth option. Every human being has a soul, and everyone who has sex does so in one of these three places. When this life is over, sex may be over. There is nothing in the Bible that says we will have sex in heaven. Actually, our experiences in paradise will far exceed anything we have experienced on earth. Just because God made sex doesn't mean that He hasn't made something even better for His children to enjoy together.

The joy...the fellowship...the ecstasy....and the praise of heaven will far exceed any sexual experience on earth. I suggest that you choose to trust your Creator on this one....and on everything else He has said in His Word....unless of course you think that you are smarter than God on things like sex, marriage, and eternity.

If and when you have sex in the future, you would be wise to imagine where your soul will go during the sexual experience. Picture yourself in "the marriage bed" if you are a Christian couple; or in church, if you are a believer who is planning to sin sexually; or on the rim of a volcano, if you don't yet trust Christ as your Savior. People often spend much time planning the physical surroundings for their intimate interludes. But how many people are aware of their spiritual surroundings during sex? God provides "spiritual protection" for anyone who truly wants to engage in "safe sex."

In other words, don't just jump into bed with someone until you are aware of where your soul will be at during your sexual experience. You don't have to sacrifice your soul for eternity upon the altar of sexual satisfaction. Surrender your sexual desires to Christ....as well as your entire heart....and believe that He died for all of your sins on the cross....and you will escape the fire of hell and be saved to live in the paradise of heaven.

"Safe sex" in "the marriage bed" keeps you from swerving off the narrow road....and that is the only safe road into eternity. The Lord takes this sex stuff so seriously because He takes our bodies so seriously. That is why St. Paul urged believers "to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God - this is your spiritual act of worship." (Romans 12:1)

That brings everything full circle. Even many unbelievers, if they were honest, would admit that they are trying to find a spiritual high through sex and not only physical pleasure. This is because God designed our bodies to be used to His glory as a spiritual act of worship. The body and soul are not really two separate entities, but are intertwined with one another into this one person God calls "you."

One final thought. You never again need to fall for the lie that sex is only physical. You may have always known in your heart that sex has a deep spiritual reality to it, but you might have been afraid to admit it. Hey....you're human....we are often afraid of things we don't understand.

Unfortunately, plenty of things in life which feel good happen to have horrible consequences. At the end of the day, you can bow to your feelings, or you can make your feelings bow to the Lord. Either way, your soul hangs in the balance. I bet you would never sell your body for sex....but would you sell your soul for sex?

Be quick to apologize whether you are right or wrong. God does not judge according to the principles of "right" and "wrong", He judges our actions against His Word. Read Matthew 5:23-25, Ephesians 4:26-27 Philippians 2:3.

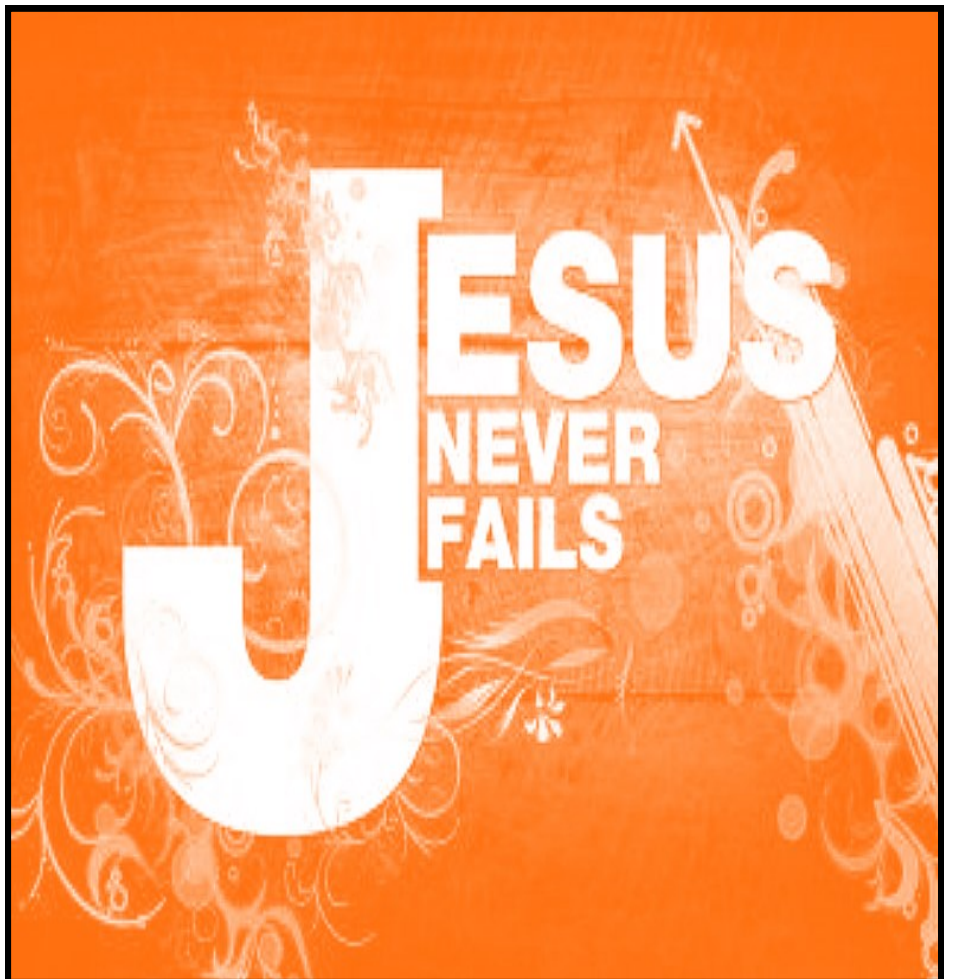

Just LOVE your spouse. If we all walk in the God kind of love we will easily respond in a godly manner when faced with the negative stuff that confronts us.

It has been proven by my own life that as we all follow these simple guidelines in marriage, God will intervene and cause each marriage to be successful to His Glory and Honour and so serve to be a beacon to the saved as well as the unsaved. It is indeed possible readers, to live together as man and wife, even in these dark days, and have a successful marriage. God did it for me! He has truly fixed my mess and made it into this message. If your marriage is in a mess He can do it for you too.

Where Will You Spend Eternity?

We at GTJ hope you have received some insight into God's plan for man and in this issue. We want to share one last thing with you. We want you to know that Jesus Christ is the Ultimate Answer to every question and every problem.

The Bible tells us that all men and women are created in such a way that they long for a relationship with their Creator. But ever since Adam and Eve decided to go their own way in the Garden of Eden, that intimate relationship with God has been broken.

Romans 5:12 says, "Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin: and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned". Therefore, because of what

Adam did every human thereafter have been born in sin so no matter how good you and those around you think you are if you have not believed in the sacrifice Jesus made on the Cross for sin when you die you are not going to heaven, you are going to hell. The Good News is that because God loves you He allowed His Son Jesus Christ to pay the penalty for sin on the Cross so we would not have to. Jesus Himself said, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father but by me" (John 14:6). Jesus made a way for you to come to God and have a new start in life. He died to take away your sins and bring you into a personal relationship with God.

You can have that relationship right now, by committing your life to Jesus and receiving His forgiveness. If you don't know how to talk with God, or how to begin telling Him you want to submit your life to His plan, start with this simple prayer. Just

BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST AND YOU WILL BE SAVED

speaking it from your heart:

"Lord Jesus, I know I'm a sinner. I've done many wrong things (name them if you need to) and I ask you to forgive me. I want you to be Lord of my life. Please help me to live for you, and I thank you for your love. Amen."

Congratulations! If you prayed this prayer, you need to tell someone about this wonderful decision you've made! Send us an email to info@savemylovedones.com and let us know of your decision. We will rejoice with you, pray with you and send you information on how to live as a new Christian. This is the most important decision of your life. May God encourage you as you come to understand more about His love for you!
