In today's marketplace, a book serves as a powerful tool for building credibility, attracting clients, and expanding your brand's impact.

But how do you know if it's the right step for you?

Use this checklist to find out.

Check all that apply:

You Have a Message or Method That Helps Others:

- You've developed a system, process, or method that gets results.
- You regularly teach, coach, or speak about a specific topic.
- People often say, "You should write a book!"

You Want to Grow Your Business or Brand:

- You want to attract high-quality leads or clients.
- You want to position yourself as an expert in your niche.
- You want to create a product that builds your authority even while you sleep.

You're a Leader, Coach, Consultant, or Entrepreneur:

- You speak at events, host webinars, or run group programs.
- You want a way to reach more people with your message.
- You want to leave a legacy or expand your influence.

You're Passionate About Sharing What You Know:

- You've overcome challenges others still struggle with.

- You're constantly pouring into others, your clients, congregations, or communities.
- You've started writing, journaling, or collecting ideas already.

Your Score:

 10-12 boxes checked: You're ready! A book will boost your business and brand impact.

 6-9 boxes checked: You've got the heart and foundation—time to explore the next step.

 3-5 boxes checked: You're in discovery mode. Let's talk through your idea and see what's possible.

About Williams DocuPrep

Hassle-Free & Affordable Self-Publishing Services

Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it

—Habakkuk 2:2

Writing a book is tough enough, but when you finish the manuscript, a whole new set of difficulties pops up. Navigating through the phases of self-publishing can overwhelm anyone who lacks the knowledge and technical skills to produce a professional-quality book.

Today self-publishing has become so popular that just about everyone believes they have the skill to self-publish books, and often publish books that look homemade and unprofessionally done. When searching the internet for reputable help to self-publish your book, you will come across many fly-by-night, and unscrupulous companies that overcharge aspiring authors.

It can be difficult to tell who to trust your hard work with. You want and need someone who is vested in your book's success, not your pocketbook. With WDP, you're in charge. We will produce the book you want according to your timeline and under your direction.

Williams DocuPrep is not a vanity or traditional publisher, we are a service provider. We only charge for our labor. We do not retain any rights or require any royalties.

Our clients are faith-based writers, business owners, life coaches, speakers, ministers, consultants, counselors, and individuals who:

- are committed to making a real difference in the world, to benefit the people around them and the planet as a whole.
- are willing to invest in themselves and their business, knowing it's the best investment of all.
- want to truly self-publish their book.
- know they have a calling to share their message or story through books.
- want to share professional advice, techniques, or services and information.
- want to share a testimony of overcoming life's struggles and how their faith in the Lord helped them through.
- want to give practical and spiritual advice to help others grow closer in faith in the Lord.
- are committed to making a difference.

THE GOAL OF WDP IS SIMPLE:
Make self-publishing your book easy.

Your budget for self-publishing may be tight, but God's isn't. If God says to do it, He has prepared the way for you to get it done. Our all-inclusive service packages include editing, formatting, custom cover design, sermon to book, assisted book writing, and print-on-demand with worldwide online distribution.
